The DIMMER VIEW

'SDS Wants Communism'–Hoover

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, in a message to his subordinates and the public, warns of violence on campus as the new college year commences.

He views the Students for Democratic Society organization as a particularly disturbing influence on campus.

"The split in SDS ranks during the so-called national convention in Chicago last June resulted in the election of two slates of national officers," Hoover said.

"The expelled pro-Pekin Progressive Labor Party wing set up its own SDS organization. Thus opposing forces, each claiming to represent the true SDS will clash on campuses throughout the country for controlling power.

"Since clamor and agitation are proven techniques for attracting new members and support, violent disruptions will come as no surprise.

"Although the SDS convention in Chicago was a fiasco, the feuding factions did not for a moment lose sight of their joint objective. Their goal is the destruction of 'U. S. Imperialism' and the achievement of a classless society through international communism.

"The SDS considers the rebellious youth of our country as part of an 'international liberation army', Hoover said.

"It regards young people, mainly college students, as a means by which the revolution can be accomplished because 'in general, young people have less at stake in a society . . . are more open to new ideas . . . and are, therefore, more able and willing to move in a revolutionary direction.'

"Those who rally to the support of the New Left and participate in activities championed by SDS do so under no illusion," Hoover charged.

"The issues are now clear. Time and the internal wranglings of the organization have brought one basic and important truth to the surface. The youthful idealism of 'participatory democracy' so frequently espoused by SDS while striving for student approval, has been cast aside. The Marxist dogma is in full command.

"SDS now calls for outright revolution," he said.

Hoover points out that breaking the law is a customary part of revolutionary tactics and as a result many law enforcement agencies will become involved in campus strife.

"In most instances, the nature and degree of involvement will depend on whether school authorities desire to protect their institutions and the rights of the majority of students who would rather study than riot, or forsake their responsibilities and give in to mob rule," Hoover concluded.

What Makes Interest High?

An explanation of the forces that make interest rates fluctuate, and what the "prime rate" is about, was given recently in a communication by the First National City Bank of New York.

It is probably as succinct an explanation as we have been given regarding this complex matter, so we will pass it along.

It made no reference to the unioneers who contribute to the pressure by exorbitant wage-hour demands nor of greedy suppliers, who get what they can from credulous purchasers who have been led to believe that "it will be higher tomorrow." These things have become a part and parcel of wars — and here it is again.

City Bank says high interest rates has to do with inflation.

Simply put, it is the result of the supply of money growing faster than the supply of goods. At such a point the price goes up. That's what's happening everywhere.

Despite galloping economic growth, the money supply has outstripped the economy so we have more money than we have goods or services.

The money supply has increased for a single reason: Uncle Sam has been spending more money than he takes in and the Federal Reserve, our central bank, in effect printed the money needed to cover the deficit of 1967 and 1968.

The result was bound to be the higher prices we've all been experiencing. What makes the situation worse is that when prices are rising, people borrow more and more money.

Now the Government and the Federal Reserve are taking action to brake inflation. As you might guess, the way to do this is to stop printing money so fast. Uncle Sam is trying not to spend more than he receives in taxes.

At the same time, the Federal Reserve is slowing the growth of our money supply by taking money out of our system, making it extremely difficult for the banks to get money to lend. The banks are caught between the Federal Reserve and their customers.

The fact is, banks are simply intermediaries, getting money from one group of people and lending it to other groups.

When a bank has to pay more for the money it gathers, it obviously has to charge more for the money it lends. And the sources that the banks get their money from have been charging higher and higher rates.

What's more, if the banks held their rates below other rates in the market, their supply of credit would be quickly exhausted. These are the reasons why there have been increases in the prime rate — the interest rate that banks charge corporate customers who have the best credit ratings.

Interest cost is only one of the thermometers that measures the heat in the money market. It reflects the action taken by the Federal Reserve to make money more expensive—the idea being that the more it costs to borrow, the less borrowing will be done.

Eventually, business activity will level off and price increases will slow down to a walk.

When this happens, interest rates should also come down.

Decision on 264-Space Mobile Home Park Delayed

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Consideration of a 264-space mobile home park in the Spring Valley area of the Lemon Grove Zoning District was continued on Friday by the County Planning Commission to Sept. 26.

This was done by the request of R. W. White, the applicant.

The location of the park is on the east side of Sweetwater rd. and at the north end of Gowin st.

White said that in making the original plot plan he had been unaware of new road planning in the area, and that he needed the extra time to conform the plan to road changes.

Walter Conrad, 1838 Helix st., opposed the mobile home park on behalf of himself and 17 other property owners and residents, he said.

The zone is R-2-A in which mobile home parks are allow-

Willey Heads National VFW Safety Drive

Dale Willey, 1740 Dupont dr., Lemon Grove, has been appointed a member of the VFW's National Safety Committee, it was annouced here by Raymond A. Gallagher, Redfield, S. Dakota, Commander in Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States.

Willey will attend the committee's first meeting Sept. 21 in Kansas City, Mo.

"The number of lives which can be saved through the work of this major committee is inestimable," said Gallagher in announcing the appointment. "Traffic accidents are not confined to particular regions or age, social or economic groups. They affect rich and poor, the professional person and the unskilled laborer.

This committee will concentrate its efforts on the VFW's two major safety programs, one being the continuation of the nationally known Lite-A-Bike Program aimed at reducing bicycle accidents by placing reflective tape on bikes.

Under this program 17 million bikes have been taped in the past seven years.

The other major program will be the continuation of the Defensive Driving Course in connection with the National Safety Council.

This includes both training of instructors and teaching the Defensive Driving Course to licensed drivers. There is much work to be done to help counteract ever-mounting traffic fatality figures, and I am most

STILL UP TO CITIZENS, THOUGH

Lemon Grove Tabbed by County For Community Planning Effort

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Lemon Grove has been selected by the County Planning Commission as one of the next two areas for community planning efforts. Lakeside is the other.

However, if this selection is confirmed by the County Board of Supervisors, the planning effort will still be up to the citizens of the towns.

The board has been asked to allow the planning staff to make presentations to community organizations to see if the citizen interest is there.

If it is not, the effort will be shifted to Spring Valley, Crest, Otay-Castle Park, or Alpine. North County urban fringe areas are also on the list of first priority.

The county's community planning effort is led by Robert Kelsay, but the planning staff does not lead community planning. Rather, it backs up the leadership of citizens' groups presently formed and operating in Poway, Fallbrook, Rainbow and Santee.

The Board of Supervisors has recognized the fact that unless a community plan has widespread support of the people it cannot be implemented by appropriate zoning.

Planning Commission Chairman Warren Hooper expressed his doubts as to Lemon Grove. He said there may be fixed attitudes in the community that will preclude a united planning effort.

Kelsay said that he had heard the same thing said of areas in the City of San Diego, but that these areas now have community plans.

(Kelsay was hired by the county from the city.)

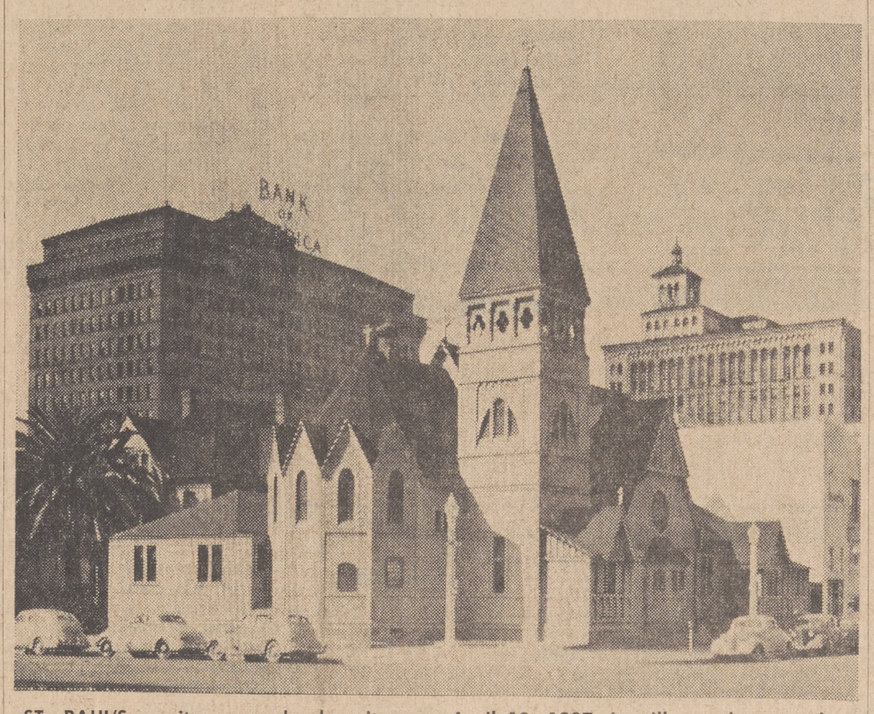
Commissioner Eleanor Anderson questioned the selection of Lemon Grove as having a more pressing need than Spring Valley. She said that Lemon Grove is largely developed, while Spring Valley has more usable space.

Planning Director Dan Cherrier said Lemon Grove has more vacant land than is readily apparent. He said the zone of R-2-A invites requests for mobile home parks, or a rezoning to R-3 for apartments with little regard to logical zoning patterns.

R-2-A or R-2 was the popular duplex zone a number of years ago and much land has been zoned that way in Lemon Grove. The pattern has been for single family development in the nature of R-1-A zoning which has a minimum lot size of 6,000 square feet as does R-2-A.

Community planning priorities are subject to change. If, for instance, citizens of Spring Valley got behind the idea in large numbers, the section would undoubtedly be next in line for community planning.

The commission also asked the planning staff to investigate methods of accelerating the pace of community planning and the supervisors will be requested to approve this study also.



ST. PAUL'S, as it appeared when it was located on 8th and C streets in San Diego, was opened for services on Easter Sunday, April 10, 1887. It will now be moved to Lemon Grove.

Local Episcopals To Save Old St Paul's Church

Before the year is over, there'll be another church in Lemon Grove.

Not a new one, either. But one of San Diegos oldest.

Members of St. Philip's Episcopal church, 2660 Hardy dr., plan to move the 82-year old St. Dunstan's Chapel to the two-acre site on the present church property.

They will probably have to cut the structure in half to accomplish the move, but the congregation's rector, Father Ken Johnson, says that the move will be made and made this year.

The moving cost is $90,750, Fr. Johnson said. Bequests, loans, and contributions leave a shortage of $20,000 to complete the job. But the difference will be raised and the project completed, he said.

The church was built in 1887 as St. Paul's Episcopal church at 8th and C streets.

In July, 1948, it was moved to the edge of San Diego State College campus and the name changed to St. Dunstan's Chapel. The move cost at that time $40,000 after $7,750 was paid for the church.

St. Philip's decided to acquire the building after it was learned the building was to be demolished. It was abandoned by St. Dunstan's a year ago. It is now owned by the San Diego State Foundation. Fr. Johnson expects there will be no charge made for the building itself — but the moving and re-erection will be costly.

St. Philip's is presently using what will become the parish hall for its sanctuary. St. Dunstan's will occupy the property owned by St. Philip's north of the present building.

The project was supported by St. Philip's Church Building Committee made up of vestry and lay members. Chairman of the committee is Dr. Sam Smith, a local physician and surgeon, senior warden.

Fr. Johnson has been here two and a half years. He was preceded by Fr. Phil Bartlett who was vicar for 14 years. He converted the mission to a parish and acquired a rectory in Spring Valley.

The Parish Hall now in use seats 125. The church, when erected, will seat 300.

"We'll be in it for Christmas services," Fr. Johnson said.

Contributions may be sent to St. Philip's Church, P.O. Box 577, Lemon Grove and checks should be marked "Save Old St. Paul's Church".

College Considers Second Site

Grossmont College, bulging at its seams with 5,792 students, may establish a second campus.

Trustees Monday night moved to investigate possibilities of acquiring a new site to handle another campus.

Enrollment has increased 20 per cent this year.

The Board also instructed President Robert N. Burnham to prepare a report outlining the advantages of a second campus rather than enlarge present facilities.

The College opened its doors in 1961, while located at Monte Vista High School, to 1,100 students. When the present 135-acre campus was opened in 1964, enrollment totaled 3,000 day and evening students.

The campus was originally designed for 4,800 day students, Burnham said, but if the present upward spiral continues, "next year we'll have 10,000 students."

Investigation of possible sites will be the job of a 20-member committee, including representatives of civic organizations within the district.

A prime site under consideration is the Monte Vista Ranch, near Fletcher Hills, the site originally selected by the Grossmont board as the location for the existing campus.

Real estate agents interested in selling the land priced at about $1 million, have contacted Burnham, but no purchase will be made until other possibilities have been explored.

Preferential Hiring Of Conservative Teachers Urged By Military Order

The monthly dinner meeting of the Military Order of the World Wars, Cajon Valley Chapter will have Dr. Heiko W. J. Wijnholds, as its featured speaker, at Admiral Kidd Officers' Club on Saturday, Sept. 27.

Dr. Wijnholds, a faculty member of San Diego State College, Department of Business Law and Finance, will speak on inflation in the present day economy and the serious monetary problems which face the world today, it was announced by Edward E. Marsh, Jr., Commander of El Cajon Chapter.

Meanwhile, the Order went on record with two resolutions.

The first, urging preferential hiring of conservative instructors by the University of California, was sent to the Board of Regents. "UC has seen fit to hire only those teachers and instructors of liberal political persuasion, virtually excluding those of conservative views," Commander Marsh said.

A political balance between the liberal and conservative could be obtained by preferentially hiring those of a conservative political persuasion, the resolution read.

Another resolution was sent to various U. S. senators urging help for R.O.T.C. programs.

The resolution backed Bill S.2111, by Senator Edward Gurney of Florida. It would cut off federal assistance to schools removing R.O.T.C. from the curriculum as a course for credit.

Houses Needed For Big Families

Mardelle Allen, a County Welfare office employee, said Monday that homes are desperately needed for two families.

One, a family of five, needs a three bedroom home with yard space. The other, a local area businessman and his wife, has a family of nine children.

The families are self-supporting Mrs. Allen said, and her department is attempting to keep the families functioning independently.

"The house needn't be a fine house," she said. "But the children need space in which to play and grow."

Those having such property or knowing about such should contact Mrs. Allen at 234-8871, ext. 459, between 8 and 5, on Wednesday or Friday.

Evaluation Of GUHSD Drug Policy Underway

The Grossmont Union High School District is re-consirering the policy under which students involved in drug cases are automatically expelled.

Officials of the district are now studying the policy for review at the October 6 meeting of the trustees.

Last week, during a meeting of the trustees, the review was ordered after they (the trustees) voted to expell two students involved with drugs.

At that time, eighty students who had been expelled under the policy, were re-instated, and six others were turned down on their bids for reinstatement.

District Superintendent Austin R. Sellery, who will be head of the review, will study recommendations made to him by parents, students, teachers' groups, and various other committees.

Students have complained about the policy because it makes no distinction between on or off campus violations and the penalty is equally severe for cases whether they are lighter offenses or more serious crimes.

Other things to be considered are proposals by the American Federation of Teachers, the California Teachers Association, and a report made to the review by Bob Pyle, assistant principal at Helix High School.

School Opens For 4,032 Kids

The board meeting of the Lemon Grove school trustees held Monday night was one postponed from the week before — and few saw any reason for holding this one at all.

However, it is required by law that they be held and so it was.

One of the bits of information developed at the meeting was attendance.

Opening day attendance, the board was told, was 4,032 — 11 more pupils than the year before. Since school had opened that day there was no way of knowing how stable the population was to be.

Since the meeting was a week late, another one will be held Monday to keep the first and third Monday schedule going.

LG Fire Report

The Lemon Grove Fire Department answered two grass fire calls during the week of Sept. 8-15, one a small blaze and the second a large one.

On Sept. 8 a small grass fire blazed up at the railroad right of way in the 1700 block Madera, the cause undetermined.

On Sept. 10 a grass fire began in the San Diego area of McArthur st. and spread into Lemon Grove. The fire covered about 25 acres, the Lemon Grove Department using three trucks and men and the same for the San Diego Department. The fire finally damaged a tool shed of G. A. Rupp at 6517 McArthur, causing about $3,000 damage.

The L.G.F.D. had one rescue run for the week: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tangerman of Anaheim were walking at Massachusetts and Broadway, when Tangerman suffered a heart attack. The rescue crew of the Fire Department administered oxygen and he was later taken to a hospital.

Miguel PTA Begins Year

With over 2500 students converging on campus at Mt. Miguel High School, the Mt. Miguel PTA was on hand Monday morning assisting with scheduling and programming.

On September 10, the PTA Board welcomed the Mt. Miguel teachers and staff with a salad luncheon. "These are just two of the many services we render annually", said Mrs. LeRoy Bellwood, School Service chairman.

"In addition, we help with telephoning to deter absenteeism, furnish transportation for field trips, and remain on stand-by to help in any other area."

President of the Mt. Miguel PTA this year is Mrs. Robert Littrell,, who is assisted on the Executive Board by 42 other parents and teachers. She reports that with times changing, PTA is making necessary changes too, and this year there will be only two short business meetings.

"We are searching for ways for parents, teachers, and students to discuss in small groups, the problems facing all of us today", she said.

Mt. Miguel PTA sponsors grade level meetings throughout the year, the first being for ninth grade parents on Sept. 30. The "Miguel Mike", edited and mailed into each home by the PTA, is another service in keeping parents and students informed.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Support Parents; Eligible For Funds?

This newspaper presents this question and answer column about the Social Security program as a public service to our readers. The questions are those most frequently asked about Social Security. The answers are provided by Sumio Oto, El Cajon Social Security Office Manager.

Q. I am the main support of my elderly parents. Can they get benefits based on my social security earnings?

A. If they are 62 or older, they could get survivors benefits if you should die. However, they are not eligible for benefits on your earnings record while you are still living.

Q. I will be 65 soon. Will my heart condition prevent me from qualifying for Medicare? Also, is there a waiting period before I can submit claims for covered services?

A. "No" to both questions. There is no waiting period, no health certificate to fill out and no pre-existing illness clauses in Medicare. You come into this insurance coverage in any state of health, and benefits begin the date you become entitled.

Q. I became permanently disabled two months ago. I plan to file for Social Security disability benefits soon, although my husband is working full time. Will my minor children be eligible for any benefits?

A. Yes. If your disability claim is approved, your minor children may also be eligible to receive monthly benefit payments.

Q. It is my understanding that Medicare covers only items and services provided within the United States. My daughter says Medicare also covers people receiving services in Guam. Is this correct?

A. Yes. Whenever you leave the U.S. to travel, your Medicare card covers you in all 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam and American Samoa.

If you have further questions regarding the Social Security Law, contact or write the Social Security Office, 570 North Second st., El Cajon, 92021.

The office is open from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday and until 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays. The telephone number is 442-0851.

This Sunday

Always and Everywhere

Let no one imagine that it is a strained and unnatural thing for one to pray. The contrary is much closer to the fact. It is far more unnatural for one not to pray. Prayer is one of the most natural of human instincts. Prayer is man's response to the divine will.

Buying A Home? Read This First

If you are going to buy a new home soon, be sure it is adequately sound-conditioned with insulation. Homes now are subject to higher sound levels than a decade ago. People inside use more electrical appliances. Outside, the noise level has risen, too, with the addition of high-speed highways and heavier air traffic.

What's the most popular home today? A recent survey of total sales of existing homes show that 56.9 per cent have three bedrooms. About 22 percent have four bedrooms or more, and only 20 per cent have one or two bedrooms. Median sale price: a little over $21,000.

A room in your home used for business purposes might be deductible on your income tax return. However, there are strict limitations on this. Better check with an Internal Revenue Service office for full details if you think you qualify for such a deduction.

Widows of veterans who died in service are eligible for a GI home loan, providing they haven't remarried.

About 22 per cent of the new homes purchased in the nation last year had basements, compared to 44 per cent of the used homes.

Furniture Mix Wins Acceptance

Does furniture have to be all one period or style? The answer used to be "yes," but not any more. American families move so often they acquire an astonishing mixture of furnishings. To go with mixed periods, manufacturers of resilient floorings now offer vinyl asbestos tile designed to tie the various styles together in a pleasing blend.

According to The Better Floors Council, these new patterns include embossed tile in pebble, mosaic and travertine that provide a good background for furniture of different periods. Made principally in off-white and beige tones, such tile goes beautifully with contemporary or traditional furnishings or a mixture of both.

The many colors of an Oriental rug — copy or real — take on an added glow when seen against a light tile floor. The woman with a variety of traditional pieces can always be confident that her furniture will look appropriate in this setting.

Contemporary colors and modern furnishings take on added brilliance against the background of a neutral flooring. The interesting textures of modern fabrics are highlighted when used with three-dimensional embossed vinyl asbestos tile.

So you see, a room can hold several periods of furniture.

PLANS — Mike Beggs, right, Chairman of the Spring Valley Lions Club White Cane Days discusses plans for the 19th annual White Cane Days with ex-chairman Bill Beggs.
White Cane Days have been set for the 3 and 4 of October when Lions across the nation will be asking their fellow Americans to help them help the blind.

SV Lions Schedule White Cane Days

"Your gift to LIONS WHITE CANE DAYS may be the gift of sight to some one in need," declares Mike Beggs, Spring Valley Lions Club White Cane chairman in announcing the date for the 1969 event, which will be Friday and Saturday, October 3 and 4.

"Those dates will see nearly all of the 800 Lions clubs in the California-Nevada District inviting their neighbors to share in their sight saving program. Each club will use 100% of its receipts for blind and sight projects," he says.

The purpose of a Lions club is more than good fellowship and club social life, important though these are. It is to recognize community needs and develop means of meeting them, either through its own effort or in cooperation with other agencies.

In administering the money raised, Lions throughout the two state area render services ranging from the personal ones to the broad work of groups and organizations.

Individual needs to be undertaken are such as school children's eye examinations and supplying of glasses, therapy and even helping in the cost of eye operations. Lion groups sponsor clinics, homes for the blind, research laboratories, and independent organizations, such as schools and recreation facilities for blind children.

Mike Beggs is asking the residents of Spring Valley to be part of this Lion team, where 100% of your gift is used for the blind or the needy with sight impairment right here in Spring Valley.

MV Appoints Vice Principal

Edward C. Foster has been appointed as Vice Principal-Dean at Monte Vista High School for the current school year succeeding Robert King who transferred to El Capitan as administrative vice principal.

"We were certainly sorry to see Bob King go," said Principal Robert Brady, "as he did an outstanding job with us last year. But we are extremely fortunate in obtaining Ed Foster's services as he has the experience, personality and capabilities necessary for this job and will make an excellent addition to our staff."

Foster comes to Monte Vista from twelve years at El Cajon Valley High School where he counseled the last three years, graduating the class of 1969. Earlier, he taught physical education, was athletic director and department chairman, and coached football at El Cajon.

His 1965 team won the Grossmont League championship. He obtained his B.A. and M.A. from San Diego State College.

Students Not-so-happy Back-to-school Time Leaves Mothers Happy,

By John Nicholson

Is everybody happy?

Well, all the housewives around Spring Valley and Lemon Grove are probably relieved, at least.

Every September around this time, the kids leave for school, and the mothers of the area can sit back and relax with no kids to shout at and fewer messes to clean up.

And the teen-agers! Your going to see a lot less of them these days too. That means College Grove will be slightly deserted of those pretty 17-year-olds.

(But all you girl watchers can take heart, 'cause they'll still be showing up on the week-ends.)

At Mount Miguel High School, there are about 2,700 in attendance, some 200 more than last year's total.

According to Virgil Duea, vice-principal, there are more new courses being taken, including several off-campus vocational programs.

High School Football

Also on the agenda in school activity this week, the football season will be getting underway. The first football activity will be the Grossmont League's "football carnival."

One of the highlights of back-to-school week, the football carnival pits all the teams in the district playing each other in 12-minute time periods.

Other back-to-school notes include a rise in business for clothing stores, dime stores, and sporting goods stores.

It seems that there are always those who never get around to getting their new school clothes, school supplies, and gym clothes until after school starts.

Pencils, pens, paper, and notebooks have been going like hotcakes the past week, and they will probably still be going well for a few more weeks.

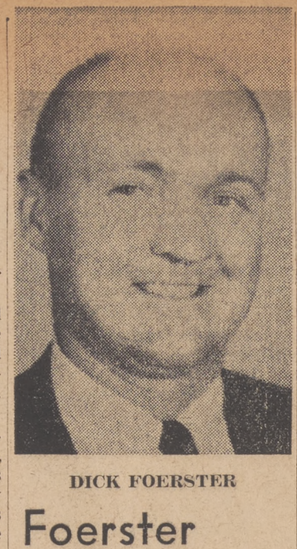
Excitement

There is always a lot of excitement around this time, with more and more mothers making the trip to the beauty shop, more and more fathers getting their cars in top shape for those repeated runs to take their kids to school.

Kids will be taking field trips, starting science projects, studying (sometimes), and going to bed early.

The weather is supposed to cool off (will it really?) as the long lazy sumer comes to a close.

It is a time of changes. A welcome time for some, not-so-welcome for others, but it is definitely back-to-school time.



DICK FOERSTER

Foerster has had a wide variety of experiences ranging from camp teaching through the elementary grades, and on the junior high level.

He has earned a bachelor's degree at the University of Texas, a master's from San Diego State and is continuing his graduate studies at the latter institution.

He holds a general elementary administrative credential.

Foerster is on the Board of Directors of the Kiwanis Club; has worked with the La Mesa Recreation Department; chairman of the math department; and is at present an officer in the local teachers association.

Davis, who is also an ordained minister, resides on Lake Murray blvd. in La Mesa with his wife, Marge, and children, Dan and Kelly.

Circus Slated At Balboa

The Rudy Brothers Circus, a world-famed, three-ring outdoor show, is coming to San Diego's Balboa Park September 27-28.

In a benefit appearance sponsored by the San Diego Junior Chamber of Commerce, the circus will feature four shows including two matinees and two evening performances.

The circus will be located across Park avenue from the U. S. Naval Hospital, and adjacent to the Federal Building.

Tickets are available from many merchants throughout San Diego, or by calling the ticket office at 233-6944.

Y Program Starts

Although no building is in sight, the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley Y is off and running.

A summer Y-Teen program, designed for 13 to 16 year olds, this year attracted many area teens to activities.

Included were movies, dances, swimming and beach parties, and other activities, all held with little cost to the participant.

Ron Wise is serving as Youth Director for the area.

A speaker's bureau is being formed. Arrangements can be made by calling Bill Fitzpatrick at 469-9889 after 5:30 p.m.

Indian Guide Program Rounds-up Little Braves

A father-son program, the Y Indian Guides, is being commemorated this week.

Y Indian Guides is for fathers whose boys are in the first, second and third grades.

Round-up time for Big and Little Braves will be held locally at two schools.

On Sept. 24, it will be held at Mt. Vernon school for youngsters at San Miguel, San Altos, Monterey Heights, Mt. Vernon and Golden ave. schools.

On Sept. 25 it will be at Casa de Oro school for youngsters at Casa de Oro, Highlands, Avondale, Spring Valley, La Presa, Bancroft, Kempton and Rancho schools.

Y-Indian Guides provides opportunities for dads to be active with their six-to-nine-year old sons. The program also encourages young braves to turn to their dads for guidance and reassurance — a practice that often continues for the remainder of their lives.

The maximum size of a tribe is usually eight little and eight big braves. The program centers around Indian lore with simple games, crafts, stories, campouts, kite flys and outings.

Meetings are held twice a month, rotating from home to home. This yast year the Heartland YMCA had 60 tribes enrolling 900 fathers and sons.

Dads should attend the school nearest them. All meetings are for first and second grade boys and their dads from 7 to 8 p.m.

For other information call the Heartland YMCA — 466-4161.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

Is it correct to say "la mano?" If so, isn't this contrary to rules of grammar because a masculine word, ending in "o," is matched with the feminine article "la?" Are there other words in Spanish for which the articles are not matched with the same gender of the nouns they modify?

"La mano" (the hand), even though it looks awkward, is correct usage. The feminine article "la" is matched with a word ending in "o." Usually words that end in "o" have related masculine articles like "el" or "un." Thus "la mano" must be considered an exception to the rule.

Several other Spanish words have articles that seem to have no relation to the nouns they modify. Consider "el agua" (the water), "el aguila" (the eagle), "el dia" (the day), "el clima" (the climate), and "el policia" (the policeman). In these examples the endings are "a" which normally identify feminine words. They each have a masculine article "el" (the).

This variation in grammar causes some confusion for the beginning student who expects the article "la" (the) to be matched with words ending in "a" and the article "el" (the) to appear with words ending in "o."

One of the above words may have either "la" or "el" as the article. If we say "el policia" we refer to "the policeman." "La policia" is used to identify "the police."

Today's practice phrases below contain some of these unusual article-noun relationships. You may wish to practice saying them with the recorded voice when you dial 276-2762.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:
Say "Me gusta el clima." (meh GOOS-tah lah KLEE-mah)
for "I like the climate."
Say "El agua es fria." (ehl ah-goo-ah ehs FREE-ah)
for "The water is cold."

USEFUL PHRASES:
Say "Lave las manos." (LAH-veh lahs MAH-nohs)
for "Wash (your) hands."
Say "Es un problema." (EHS oon proh-BLEHM-mah)
for "It is a problem."

OTHER PHRASES:
Say "El policia habla." (ehl poh-lee-SEE-ah AHB-lah)
for "The policeman speaks."

Penrod, a local folk-rock-blues band, is in town tonight for an appearance at the Candy Company.

Family, Orphaned 40 Years Becomes Re-acquainted Here

Three of a family who have been separated for nearly forty years without knowing where each other was, was reunited in Lemon Grove last week.

The family — two boys and a girl, were put out for adoption when they were five to eight years old.

The girl, Mrs. Francis Medlock, of 741 Osage st., Spring Valley, now 42, was five years old when her mother died. Mrs. Medlock is a group leader at Rohr Aircraft.

John Bensburg, now 39, is a technician with Universal Studios in Hollywood. John's foster father died in June, 1967. It was he who found the others when he uncovered a lead as he went through the papers left by his foster father.

David Jay, surprisingly, the other brother and the oldest at 41, was almost a neighbor of sister Frances. He lives in Bonita and is a mechanic for the City of San Diego.

The family name was Meyers but the father has not been heard from since the youngsters were put in orphanages or foster homes.

When the brothers and sister re-discovered each other they had a feast at Pal's Cafe at Imperial and Lester in Lemon Grove.

After a long visit, they decided to have another dinner this week — same place and to continue the get-togethers until they get caught up on "family talk."

They declined to pose for the photographer however.

F. S. Schmidt, DISTRICT DIRECTOR, INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — Is a graduate school fellowship taxable?

A — Income from a fellowship is usually tax exempt. If you are a candidate for a degree there is no limit on the amount of tax-free income you may receive from a fellowship or scholarship grant.

However, if you teach or perform other services in connection with the award, the portion of the award that represents payment for this work is generally taxable. This rule does not apply if all candidates for the degree, whether they have a fellowship or not, are also required to perform these services.

For additional information send a post card to your District Director for a free copy of Publication 507, "Tax Information On Scholarships and Fellowships."

Q — What are the benefits folks over 65 get when they sell their homes?

A — All or part profit made on such sales may be tax free when certain conditions are met. For example, the taxpayer must be 65 or over before the date of the sale and owned and used the home as his principal residence for five of the preceding eight years.

For more details in this provision of the law and to learn more about the tax benefits for those 65 or over, send a post card to your district office and ask for a free copy of Publication 554, "Tax Benefits For Older Americans."

Q — I read where I'll have to fill out an extra form next year to itemize my deductions instead of doing it on the back of the 1040. Is that right?

A — Yes, the place for itemized deductions has been moved from the back of Form 1040 to a separate schedule. The separate form is basically another way to organize the information required in a manner that benefits taxpayers by providing more space to list deductions.

Q — Can you still be audited even though a refund has come through O.K.?

A — Yes. IRS generally has three years from the time a return is filed to make an audit and assess additional taxes. For this reason it is advisable to keep tax records for ordinary income and expense items at least three years. Some records, however, should be retained longer. For example, those supporting costs of investments, etc.

It usually takes about 5-6 weeks to process a return calling for a refund. In that time it is only possible to make sure the return is complete, the arithmetic is accurate and that the taxpayer is not filing a duplicate refund claim or has an outstanding tax liability.

The Air Force Academy in Colorado cost $200-million.

Changed Schedule For Scripps Ranch

Changes in the home tour schedule at Scripps Miramar Ranch have been announced by Ken Jago, general manager of the Ranch.

Effective now, home tours will be conducted for the general public from 10 to 4:30 on Saturdays, Sundays, and Thanksgiving Day.

Monday through Friday, the Ranch will be open only for reserved groups, according to Jago. This includes group tours, club meetings and dinner parties catered at the Ranch.

E. W. Scripps controlled his vast publishing domain from the Ranch until his death in 1926. He began construction on the family home during the 1890's and the Ranch was a mecca for important, influential people throughout Scripps' reign as one of the U. S.'s most colorful journalists.

Giant Boeing 747 jets going into overseas travel will carry 64,000 pounds of cargo and passengers.

Employment Up In California

Total civilian employment in California reached a record 8,096,000 in August, William C. Hern, Deputy Director of Industrial Relations, announced.

The gain from July, however, was held to a seasonal one of 58,000 because of work stoppages in the Southern California construction industry.

Much of the expansion from July stemmed from sharp upturns in cannery crews and agricultural workers as the autumn harvest accelerated.

'Midnight House Sale' Is Real Estate First

San Diego's first "midnight sale" will celebrate the completion of Guy Hatfield's latest 46-home development off Golden ave. and Roy st. in Lemon Grove, Friday, Sept. 26, 7 p.m. to midnight.

According to developer Hatfield, "The come-as-you-are sale is timed for the convenience of working people. The affair will be complete with flood lights, refreshments and usherettes, and three furnished models will be open for inspection."

The youthful lawyer-builder said the party will be thrown as scheduled, despite the fact that 40 of the 46 homes have been sold "from blueprints, trailers and off dirt streets."

"Even if I'm 100% sold out," claimed Hatfield, "I'll go ahead with the sale. If there's nothing left to buy at Lemon Grove maybe I'll bus everybody out to Poway, Vista, Escondido or Oceanside, where we've got all kinds of $18,990 homes starting construction."

Lemon Grove is the fast-rising builder's second development completed this year. The 57 homes in San Marcos closed out in August.

Hatfield's success centers around the low price, coupled with quality and beautiful, conventient locations, stressed Carl McCoy, Lemon Grove sales director.

Priced from $23,950, the homes in Lemon Grove offer three or four bedrooms, two baths and three floor plans with from 1,264 to 1,298 square feet.

State Owners, Renters Face Insurance Risks

SAN FRANCISCO — Few businesses are booming like the apartment business in California. New apartment complexes are being built at an almost unbelievable rate all around the state and being occupied as fast as they can be completed.

Families look for many things when choosing an apartment to lease, yet when they make the choice they too often overlook one very important item, according to the Insurance Information Institute.

Since the building they live in doesn't belong to them, the thought of purchasing insurance protection often doesn't occur. They forget, or don't know, that although the apartment owners insure the building itself against fire and other forms of destruction, the owner's insurance does not protect the renter's possessions inside the building nor the occupant's legal liability for negligent acts.

Insurance coverage for apartment dwellers — and other renters — called tenant homeowners insurance, is easy to get, complete in its coverage and inexpensive, the Institute advises.

For example, this coverage will cost the California renter between $22 and $86 for a three-year period when the insured possessions are valued at $4,000.

The difference in rates is determined by the type of construction, the availability of fire fighting and prevention equipment and the number of living units in the building.

The highest rates are paid when the dwelling is located in a wooden frame building, far from adequate fire protection facilities and when there are over 20 units in a single building.

Shrine Game Pits SDS-UC/Santa Barbara

Nationally-ranked San Diego State College tangles with the University of California at Santa Barbara Oct. 25 in the annual Shrine charity football game benefitting the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children in Los Angeles.

Details of the contest, which will be preceded in San Diego Stadium by a 45-minute display of pageantry, were announced at a Cuyamaca Club reception hosted by San Diego's Al Bahr Shrine Temple and potentate Victor Stewart.

Special guests among media and sports representatives were Aztec grid mentor Don Coryell and members of his coaching staff, athletic manager Harvey Goodfriend and Jean (Cheesey) Neal, State business manager of athletics. Al Bahr Shrine game co-chairman Murdock Kidder and Ray Shukraft said their committees already are making plans to insure a crowd that will exceed the 44,169 fans who last year saw the Aztecs thrash Los Angeles State 37-14.

The men of Montezuma mesa, who assembled a 9-0-1 record in 1968, will be meeting a Gaucho eleven from Santa Barbara that last year won four games, lost four and tied one.

Kidder and Shukraft said the winner of any Shrine-sponsored contest was always the child being treated at one of the 22 orthopedic or burn hospitals the fraternal order operates in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Since the first Shriners crippled children's hospital was opened 47 years ago, orthopedic surgeons have applied more than 552,000 casts and ftted nearly 130,000 braces.

Run For Your Life At Heartland YMCA

Twenty-one run for your life classes, for men and women, are being offered by the San Diego City and County YMCA's eight local branches this Fall.

The programs meet three times weekly for twelve weeks and consist primarily of warm up exercises followed by interval walking and jogging.

Enrollees are carefully screened prior to joining the program and then are given a physical fitness appraisal to provide some baseline data for future evaluations.

The program was designed two years ago by the Fitness Council of the Downtown YMCA as it became apparent that heart disease in the United States was reaching epidemic proportions, and lack of exercise was labeled one of the chief coronary risks.

The YMCA has a plan to "take fitness to the people" in the community, making it possible for them to participate by making it convenient.

By bringing groups of like-minded people together they are able to utilize the group reinforcement and concomitant enthusiasm which is highly motivating.

The joggers, ranging from 29 to 69 years of age, start out the first week jogging 55 and walking 55 yards. At the end of the twelve weeks they are jogging from 1½ to 2½ miles — a pleasant surprise, to many of them, that they can do so much.

Each group is supervised by a trained run leader who leads the warm-up exercises and sets the jogging pace and distance. Medical approval is required prior to admission to the program.

Those who are interested should contact the Heartland Y.

Twenty years ago about 6 quarts of milk could be obtained for an hour's wages; in 1968 earnings of an hour bought more than 11 quarts of milk.

FIRST SCRIMMAGE

MV Bests North County Power

By SCOTT McGAUGH

With a sparkling defensive and consistent offense, the Monte Vista Monarchs slipped by the Oceanside Pirates, 6-0, last Friday in the first scrimmage of the year for the Monarchs.

Dan Reid was a standout at quarterback for the Monarchs as he chalked up three long passes to Richard Lauzier, Richard Weathers, and Bob Martin.

Martin scored the only touchdown of the game as Richard Lauzier's reception nearly set up another.

Each squad ran 20 plays at a time. Lauzier took his reception down to the Pirates' eight-yard line but it was the last of the Monarchs' 20-play series.

Bob Martin turned in an outstanding performance as a safety while the Monarch defensive line was impervious to the Pirates' inside running attack.

Rob Wescott and Vince Campoli teamed to gain most of Monte Vista's running yardage while Chuck Pettijohn and Tony Harper also gained on the ground.

There were the usual turnovers for a pre-season contest as penalties, fumbles, and interceptions were numerous as both squads changed personnel freely throughout the game.

The Pirates never got inside the Monarch 20 as Monte Vista held constantly. The Monarchs, however, were inside the Pirate 20 four times.

El Capitan will be the Monarchs' opponent in the annual Grossmont League Carnival this Friday. The Monarchs will then do battle with San Diego next Friday before opening their league schedule October 3 against Helix on the Monarch gridiron.

Time To Hit The Football Field Again

It might be back-to-school time for many students, but for a select few, it is closer to say that it's back-to-the-gridiron.

Many of the high school football stars of last year haven't been on the field all summer, and it's pretty tough to make the transition from beach to gridiron.

Most of the stars in the Grossmont District have been working out with weights, building their bodies for the upcoming season, but have only been working out on the field for a couple of weeks.

Mount Miguel's footballers, according to Coach Ben Cipranic, have been working very hard, and expect to be right up there when the season opens.

Some of the stars to look for this year include Billy Joe Winchester, who can play any position but quarterback, Larry Smith, who has been developing into a fine pass receiver, and Tom Madigan, who will handle the signal calling this season.

The Matadors have three new coaches on the staff this year, and according to Cipranic, they have been instrumental in helping the team have the best morale that it has ever had.

We'll see what happens tomorrow night.

Matadors Splash On

By PAT O'BRIEN

As America's Moonmen were racing towards the Pacific, Mt. Miguel athletes were staging their own "splash down" in the frigid Carmen Ranch pool. The Matador waterpolo team was on its way to the CIF title.

This year's team is faster, bigger, and more experienced than any other team preceeded in it. The squad has many returning lettermen — among them goalie Bobby Ek, known throughout the Southern California polo circuit for his agility and calm, collective reasoning.

Helping out in the scoring department will be Lincoln Szuch, Dave Johnson, captain Donald Carlson, and a new exchange student from Japan named Nu Nu.

The polo season begins Sept. 30 with Mt. Miguel at Fallbrook. Followed by an important match against Monte Vista Oct. 7.

Any athletes interested in participating in water polo this season is asked to contact Coach Roger Moreau at Mt. Miguel High School.

Area Youngsters Learn To Swim

Twenty eight Lemon Grove children have received Red Cross Water Safety Certificates as a result of the Mount Vernon PTA's annual Backyard Swim Program.

Eighty seven elementary school students participated in the swim which was under the direction of Mrs. Marlene Robershaw. Backyard swim is held each summer by the Mt. Vernon PTA in cooperation with the American Red Cross.

Since its beginning in 1956 the plan has been responsible for allowing over 75,000 students nationally to complete the two week course in pools donated by local residents.

Included in those receiving the certificates were 13 for Beginning Swim and 15 for Advanced Beginner.

One area family had three children pass the Advanced Beginning program. They included Cheryl, Bob and Glen Nye.

Other Advanced Beginners are Stephen DeNunzio, Paul Zielius, Lisa Owens, Laurie and Cheryl Tupper, Rebecca Ludwig, David Helgeson, Doug Barcus, Leslie Archibald, John Seymore, Richard Coker and Sharon Fujimoto.

Beginner certificates were awarded to Kim and Sherry Ackerman, Jana Middleton, Cindy Herrick, Nancy Jasper, Tony Scalasi, Ricky Jansen, Debbie and Ricky Rodriguez, Robert Tupper, Don Mitchell, Brian Trask and Chuck Welch.

Cajon Stocks Points Race Nears Wire

Jim Whitt, the El Cajon plumber, is slowly but surely climbing the points ladder, and is expected to be on hand to battle Ed Hale, Carl Adams, and arch-rival Jim Hitt of Lemon Grove this Saturday night in Cajon Speedway super stock action.

Whitt plunged into second place in the top ten points race last week when he won a heat race and finished second in the main, just four car lengths behind Hale.

Adams, of Lemon Grove, tops on the points list, had car trouble last week, but is expected to have things ironed out in time for the races this week.

Hale, the suicidal driver from Lemon Grove rarely misses a race and is always near the front when he can keep his car off the crash wall and out of multiple-car pileups on the tight Speedway corners.

Others to keep in mind for the twenty-first encounter of the season include George Esau, fourth in points; Vance Butler, seventh in points and Pat McInyre, the carpenter from Spring Valley.

With just seven nights of racing left in the season, the points race is getting tighter every week, with races starting at 8 p.m. every Saturday and qualifying at 6:30.

Hale took a fast qualifying lap of 18.95 over Cajon Speedway's 3/8 mile paved oval, finished second in an eight-lap heat race, and went on to win the main event in the super stock competition Sept. 13.

Hale, who started from the twelfth position, took over the lead on the thirteenth lap, and finished four car lengths ahead of El Cajon's Jim Whitt, to win his first main event of the season.

GETS TASTE — Rookie quarterback Marty Domres unexpectedly found himself playing considerable time for the Chargers Sunday, relieving lamed John Hadl.
The first-year signal-caller, the team's number one draft choice from Columbia, may get a chance to play more against the second-year Cincinnati Bengals Sunday in the Ohio river city.
The Bengals, it should be noted, banked on a rookie quarterback themselves Sunday as Greg Cook, the only collegiate passer selected ahead of Domres, came through to lead team to win over Miami.

Cub Pack 318 To See Padres-Atlanta Game

Cub Scouts from Lemon Grove Pack 318 will attend the San Diego Padre-Atlanta National League baseball game Saturday at San Diego Stadium.

The event begins at 1 p.m. and serves as the Pack's September meeting. It is being held in conjunction with Padre-Scout Day which allows all Scouts in uniform to attend the game free.

In connection with the resumption of school, regular Den meetings will be resumed in October. During the summer, only the Webelos Scouts, ten year old Cubs, held regular weekly Den meetings.

The Pack committee is now formulating plans for the annual Scout Recruiting Night to be conducted Oct. 6. Last year's recruiting resulted in 38 new Cubs.

Boy Scouts Converge on S.D. Padres

SAN DIEGO — What may be the largest single gathering of Boy Scouts in San Diego County history is scheduled for Saturday at San Diego Stadium.

More than 10,000 Boy Scouts and their leaders are expected to be on hand Saturday for the game between the San Diego Padres and the pennant contending Atlanta Braves. The Scouts, representing troops throughout the county, will be guests of the Padres.

Top ticket salesman for Scout Fair tickets will be honored before the game as the Padres' "Honorary Manager" and will receive several prizes from the Padres. He is Ricky Eastern of Troop 420.

Max Hall, Council Activities Chairman for the Boy Scouts, will represent Scouting on the field in brief ceremonies before the game. A Boy Scout color guard will be provided by Troop 289.

The Padre-Scout day is for the purpose of saluting Scouting and to encourage new boys to join. All Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers in uniform will be admitted free through stadium gaes A, B, C and D. Each Scout who recruits a boy may bring the new member to the game as a guest of the Padres.

Bengals Host Chargers In Cincinnati

Who put the lemonade in the Charger scoring punch?

Unable to find the answer in San Diego, the Chargers make their first road trip of the season this week.

To Cincinnati, to face the streaking Cincinnati Bengals, travels Coach Sid Gillman and his perplexed team in search of their first American Football League victory and temporarily misplaced ability to score.

The Chargers face the Bengals, winners of their last four games, at Nippert Stadium Sunday at 10:30 a.m. (PDT). The game will be televised in San Diego by NBC on KOGO-10 and Broadcast by Stu Nahan, Johnny Parker and Emil Karas on KDEO (910) and the Charger network.

Third highest scoring team in the League in 1968, the Chargers have yet to tally more than 19 points a game through five pre-season games and an AFL opening loss to the Kansas City Chiefs last Sunday.

"We've got a defense and a kicking game, now we must get some points," said Gillman after the Chargers succumbed to the powerful Chiefs, 27-9, before 47,988 at San Diego Stadium.

Just as in their pre-season games, the Chargers were able to move the ball effectively against Kansas City only to have their drives stymied by four interceptions and one lost fumble. The Chargers out-gained the Chiefs, 295 to 273 yards, and out-first downed them, 16-14.

Winter Keglers Warm To Task

Three leagues bowling at Golden Bowl lanes in "winter" bowling have reported in.

Valley Trio scheduled as of Sept. 15, namely: Winchell's Donuts, Mission Van and Storage, Team No. 3, W.S.C.S.C., Team No. 5, Team No. 6, Team No. 7, and Team No. 8.

Gold Fingers, reported 20 weeks of 32, as: Himmer's Insurance, first; L.G. Super Shell, 2nd; Paper Tigers, 3rd.

In the early American days Willliamsburg, Va., and Charleston S.C. were the theatrical centers of the country.

Colorado is the highest of states, averageing 6,800 feet above sea level.

Grossmont Harriers Set For Invitational

With the Long Beach Invitational cross country spectacular slated for Saturday afternoon, Coach Bob Larsen, of Grossmont College, is hoping to have his runners in top shape.

Historically, cross country has been Grossmont's top sport, as they have brought down two first place finishes and three second place finishes in the Pacific Southwest Conference.

In 1965, the Griffins picked up the school's only state championship with cross country, and finished second in the state meet in 1966.

Coach Larsen is optimistic for a successful season in 1969 but adds that the main Griffin weakness will be depth. Only six of the Griffin runners have been successful in cross country before and one injury or illness could seriously hamper the team's chances of winning.

Returning lettermen are Roger Drummand, Danny Matheny, and Brent Wilson. Drummand and Matheny ran on last year's second place team and Wilson ran on the 1967 Griffin cross country team.

Matheny earned All-Conference honors last year and Wilson did the same two years ago.

Larsen has some good freshmen prospects, mostly from Monte Vista, with the best one probably Dave Carter, one of the leading runners Monte Vista has ever had. Also from Monte Vista, who won the CIF Championship last year, are Ray Santos, Neil Wilson, Joe Mears, and Steve Gillean, captain of the 1968 Monarch team.

From Mt. Miguel is Dave Ripley, who will run cross country for the first time after only running track in high school.

James Rendina, Co-Captain of the Grossmont High School track and cross country team last year, will round out what should be a powerful Grossmont College cross country team.

Winners Named

Winners for the Charger football tickets given at Dave's Texaco station were: Bernice Gagel, of La Mesa, Rams game and Mrs. T. D. Stein, of San Diego, Kansas City game.

Names are drawn from the list of customers at the 6310 Federal blvd. station for each home game.

Beer Has Extra Values

A breakdown on the properties of beer shows it contains 85% natural liquids, 4% carbohydrates, .35% proteins.

"Home on the Range" is Kansas' state song.

City College Pigskinners Look Good

"The 1968 team was the best in City College's history. We hope this season's squad is as good or better," predicted coach Harry West, of San Diego City College.

West noted that with the good quarterbacking that he expects and some quick, sticky fingered receivers, City College could have an explosive passing attack.

Question marks for the Knights include the backfield, where West will be hoping for an adequate replacement for last year's super-star halfback, Stan Murphy.

The offensive line looks slower, but is bigger, so who knows what's going to happen there.

All things considered, it looks like another good year for the Knights.

Scout School Night Called for County

The annual "School Night to Join Scouting" program will be conducted at public and parochial elementary schools in San Diego County Oct. 6, beginning at 7 p.m.

Scout leaders will present short programs to acquaint boys with the scouting program and can enroll them on the spot. Charles Williams, Scouting Night chairman, said.

Parents with boys eight years old and up are asked to take them to a neighborhood school on that night where they can join the Cub Scouts or Boy Scouts. More than 5,000 boys enrolled on Scout Night last year, Williams reported.

District Chairman participating in Scout Night are James Hossfeld, Silver Strand District; J. W. (June) Ortis, Jr., Balboa; Gilbert Newton, Grossmont; Ruth Bingham (Cubs) and Roy Capper (Scouts), Cabrillo; Charlie Daniels, Palomar; Dom DeLuca, San Luis Rey; Harry Ashton, South Bay, and Lou Adams, Wilson District.

Board Rules SDS 'Unfit'

The State Board of Education has ruled that the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) is "unfit to be recognized as a student organization" by local schools.

The board's action in an 8-2 vote at its recent (Sept. 11-12) meeting in San Francisco followed a resolution proposed by State Superintendent Dr. Max Rafferty, who argued:

● SDS leaders have espoused Communist sympathies and that their organization is "an enemy of the state."

● Because of the alleged SDS Communist leanings, any school district which knowingly grants the group recognition may be in violation of laws prohibiting advocacy of communism on school property.

The resolution was bitterly opposed by Board Member Dorman Commons of Fullerton, joined by Board Member Miguel Montes of San Fernando. Commons called the resolution "foolish" for the following reasons:

● It would start the state board down a road of judging the fitness of student organizations, a responsibility of local school boards.

● The state board has no investigative machinery to make considered judgments of the fitness of student organizations.

● A hallmark of our democratic society is that judgments are made not on what leaders of a group such as SDS say about it, but what they do, and there are ample laws to deal with violence and disruption on the campus.

● If the SDS is subversive, then the attorney general should investigate and take appropriate action.

"I am not interested in driving the SDS or any other misguided group underground where their anger will fester," Commons declared. "Our society is not so weak that we cannot withstand the verbal onslaught of disaffected youth.

"I do not know whether the SDS by declaring itself an enemy of the state, if that is what it has in fact done, is seeking to provoke the confrontation of philosophies which this resolution implies, but I do know that the resolution is absolutely useless in dealing with student unrest and, if it does anything, will drive some otherwise uncommitted students to believe there must be some truth in the thought that the adult world is unreachable."

Rafferty, who did not agree with the points argued by Commons, stressed that the state board should provide strength and leadership to local boards in expected confrontations with the SDS. He conceded that the resolution has no force of law but that, like other board resolutions such as the one on racial imbalance in the schools, it would be helpful to local boards.

While some of the other board members who voted for the resolution agreed with Rafferty, they also expressed some doubts about it.

The general thinking was that while the board did not want to give the SDS a martyr's image and thus an issue for rallying disaffected students, the evidence presented by Rafferty should be acted upon and passed to local boards.

"I don't think the SDS really cares about what we do," said the Rev. Donn Moomaw, who heads the board's new Moral Guidelines Committee. He observed that there were many areas of agreement among board members on both sides of the issue but hoped the board would not take the easy way out by no action.

Referring to his Moral Guidelines Committee, the Rev. Moomaw said he hopes the board can come up with "something more aggressive and positive" for students about "what it means to be a citizen, what is truth, what is responsibility."

LG Library Has Big Day Saturday

Saturday at 10 a.m. promises to be a big day for all participants of the Lemon Grove County Library's Conquistador Reading Club.

On this day as a special event honoring reading club members the Library has arranged for the appearance of "The Jones Magic Club and Their Famous Magic Show."

The show will be held at the Golden Avenue School Auditorium, 7885 Golden ave.

The Jones Magic Club, led by James E. Riley, past president of the San Diego Ring of the International Brotherhood of Magicians with members John Horning, Kathy Horning, Mike Elbert, and Bill Shepard, will perform tricks galore for the boys and girls.

Sawing a girl in half will prove to be a big feature but other tricks will include pulling silver dollars out of the air, putting steel rings together and pulling them apart in a mysterious manner, and many other magical surprises.

Formal reading certificates for boys and girls completing 10 books during the summer will be awarded as a part of the program. Guests are also invited.

District Board Election Law To Start Nov. 10

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A new state law, introduced by Assemblyman Bill Ketcham, requiring elections to replace members of school district boards of education will go into effect on Nov. 10.

Election of a new board member would not be required if the vacancy occurred within four months of a regular election, but the position would remain vacant.

County Superintendent of School M. Ted Dixon and County Legislative Representative Ed Gerber both said that the bill was difficult to oppose on principle, but added that it will increase the cost of education.

Dixon said, "It would be fine if there was plenty of money, but dollars for education are already very thin."

La Mesa Firm Wins Bridge Light Award

The American Electric Contracting Corp. of 8120 Commercial ave., La Mesa, has been awarded a contract for installation of roadway lighting on the new San Diego-Coronado bridge.

The lamps will be mounted on 147 poles, 40 feet above the roadway, at intervals of 75 feet.

Work will start in October and the lighting system is expected to be in operation by the first of the new year.

Larry Kittle: Is seven enough?

Lemon Grove Youngster In Valiant C/F Battle

LEMON GROVE — "He's only going to be here so long — let him enjoy life."

That sums up the feelings of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kittle, of 8156 Cinderella pl.., for their son, Larry, 7.

Larry, one of four children, suffers from incurable cystic fibrosis, which is second only to cancer as a killer of children. Boys with the disease have an average life expectancy of 14 years.

Larry was 15 months old when the Kittles learned he had the disease.

"He was subject to colds, and we used home remedies, but he kept coughing and we couldn't stop the phlegm," Kittle explained.

So they rushed Larry to Children's Hospital, where diagnostic tests showed he had cystic fibrosis.

Larry has had penumonia five times, and was hospitalized for weeks last year. This has caused him to miss school, but he will enter the first grade at Mount Vernon Elementary School this fall.

At first, said Kittle, "we felt kind of bad about it. But we went through Children's Hospital and saw others that were worse off.

"He can play — we've got to be thankful for that," he said. "Just let him do what he can and enjoy life."

The night air is bad for Larry, and this is why the family moved to Lemon Grove from San Diego five years ago, he explained.

"We've made up our minds to the situation. He comes first, but not as far as privileges are concerned."

Kittle, disabled by a back injury suffered in an accident, said Larry spends his nights in a mist tent to help clear his lungs of thick mucus.

However, "when he's got his good days, he's just like a race horse," he added. "He doesn't want to quit."

Christmas Project Underway For Servicemen In 'Nam

"We want to send them something from home that they can't buy at the PX — and something the chaplains can deliver, even to the boys back in the 'boondocks.' "

With these words, Mrs. Mary Harter, a Spring Valley housewife, launched her "Christmas project" — sending cookies and fruitcakes to men serving in Vietnam.

Actually, Mrs. Harter's project is not seasonal. She began sending cookies to Vietnam about a year ago.

"I lost my own son in Vietnam, and when I read about some large concerns in the East helping a woman send things, I figured if she could do it, so could I," Mrs. Harter explained.

Beginning strictly as a personal project, Mrs. Harter started sending 30-pound packages of cakes and cookies to her son's former unit, the Second Battalion, 5th Marine Regiment, once a week.

Gradually, this increased to the point where she now spends much of her time baking, wrapping, or sending cookies overseas.

No longer confining herself to sending "goodies" to just one unit, she now sends them to a chaplain serving in Da Nang who distributes them to units throughout I Corps, the northernmost provinces of South Vietnam.

In order to boost the Christmas project, Mrs. Harter has been speaking to women's clubs and service clubs in the area soliciting their help.

"We're going all-out to see that every Marine or sailor in I Corps can get something special this Christmas," she said. "We'll bake the things if people will send the money, or, if they bake them, we'll send them."

In addition to her baking "hobby," Mrs. Harter also serves as an adult volunteer with the Los Toros football club of Lemon Grove-Spring Valley, a division of the Pop Warner League.

Any person or group who would like to help Mrs. Harter should write her at home: 8815 Campo rd., Spring Valley, Calif. 92077.

"I'll pick up bakery anywhere in San Diego County," Mrs. Harter promises.

Is there an end to the "pastry project" in sight?

"I hope not. As long as I can financially afford it, I'm going to keep baking things for "my" boys in Vietnam," she promised.
